

25 July 2017

COURT APPLICATION FOR CLEANSING NOTICES

European Lithium Limited (ASX:EUR, FRA:PF8)(the Company) advises that the cleansing notices issued on 8 June 2017, 15 June 2017 and 3 July 2017 (Cleansing Notices) relating to the issue of ordinary shares on 8, 15 and 30 June 2017 (Shares) were defective.

The Company confirms that it lodged a Cleansing Prospectus with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission on 11 July 2017 to rectify the issue associated with the defective Cleansing Notices and has filed an application with the Federal Court of Australia seeking declaratory relief and ancillary orders relating to the issue of securities and the subsequent offer for sale, or sale, by some of the subscribers of those securities.

The hearing of this application is listed for 26 July 2017 and the Company will continue to advise the market accordingly.
